

Morning Sermon, Sunday 30 September 2018, Matt Lillicrap

Worship and Witness

Psalm 96

Where Jesus is passionately worshipped, he is always boldly proclaimed

1. Passionate Worship
2. Bold Proclamation

Where something is passionately worshipped, it is always boldly proclaimed:

“Let us joyfully receive the gospel and its Author. Let none be reluctant or linger. Christ's work is a work of redemption from sin, from wrath, and from wretchedness. He is light, and life, and salvation. His reign is like a morning without clouds. Let joy seize the highest notes of exultation as it proclaims to the world the glorious mysteries revealed in the gospel.”
