Psalms for a long journey into joy:

Resting

Notes and slides from Julian Hardyman's sermon at the morning service, Sunday 19th May 2022

My heart is not proud, Lord,
my eyes are not haughty;
I do not concern myself
with great matters
or things too wonderful for me.

But I have calmed and quietened myself,
I am like a weaned child with its mother; like a weaned child I am content.

But I have calmed and quietened myself, I am like a weaned child with its mother; like a weaned child I am content.

Israel, put your hope in the Lord both now and for evermore.

My heart is not proud, Lord, my eyes are not haughty

Puncturing our pride

I do not concern myself with great matters or things too wonderful for me

Cropping our concerns

But I have calmed and quietened myself

Calming our souls

Ploughmen have ploughed my back and made their furrows long

Psalm 129:1

Letting God take care of my pain

Out of the depths I cry to you, LORD; Lord, hear my voice.
Let your ears be attentive to my cry for mercy.
Psalm 130:1

Letting God take care of my sin

If you, LORD, kept a record of sins,
Lord, who could stand?
But with you there is forgiveness,
so that we can, with reverence, serve you.
Psalm 130:2

Letting God take care of my sin

I am like a weaned child with its mother; like a weaned child I am content.

Nestling in God's arms

Nestling in God's arms

unless you change and become like little children, you will never enter the kingdom of heaven
