

isaiah's carol:

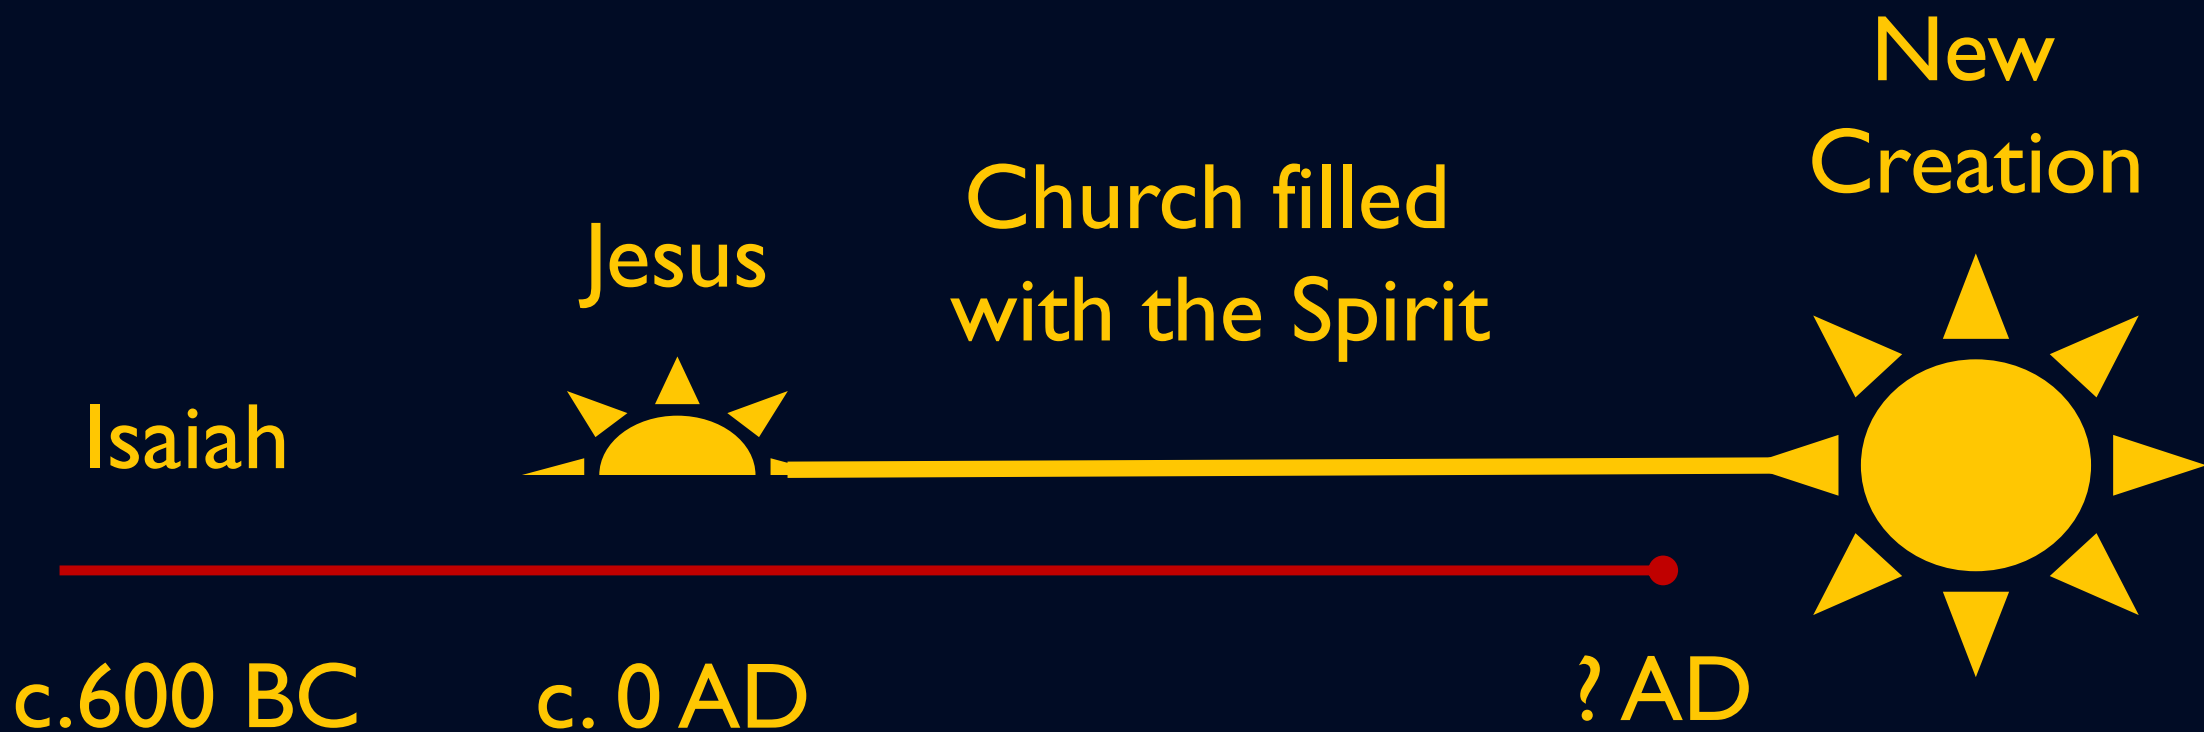

the weary world rejoices

Slides from Mike Hood's sermon at the morning service, Sunday 26th November 2023

*“A thrill of hope,
the weary world rejoices,
for yonder breaks
a new and glorious morn.”*

We know that the kingdom is coming because the King has already come.

Light in the darkness (verse 2)

We know that the kingdom is coming
because the King has already come.

The kingdom of light is beautiful
because the King is beautiful.

The kingdom of light is beautiful (verses 3-5)

The kingdom of light is beautiful

... because the King is beautiful.
(verses 6-7)

The people walking in darkness
have seen a great light;
on those living in the land of deep darkness
a light has dawned.

You have enlarged the nation
and increased their joy;
they rejoice before you
as people rejoice at the harvest, as warriors rejoice
when dividing the plunder.

For as in the day of Midian's defeat,
you have shattered
the yoke that burdens them,
the bar across their shoulders,
the rod of their oppressor.

Every warrior's boot used in battle and every garment rolled in blood will be destined for burning, will be fuel for the fire.

For to us a child is born,
to us a son is given,
and the government will be
on his shoulders.

And he will be called Wonderful Counselor, Mighty God, Everlasting Father, Prince of Peace.

Of the greatness of his government and peace
there will be no end.

He will reign on David's throne
and over his kingdom, establishing and upholding it with justice and righteousness from that time on and forever.

The zeal of the Lord Almighty will accomplish this.
