

A black and white photograph of a hand dipping a piece of bread into a bowl of soup. The hand is on the left, and the bowl is in the center. The soup is dark and chunky. The background is blurred.

Lord in the Night

John 13:18-30

Slides from Graham Higson's sermon
at the evening service
Sunday 19th May 2024

DARKNESS

A black and white photograph of a hand dipping a piece of bread into a bowl of food. The bowl contains a mixture of grains and vegetables. The background is dark and out of focus.

→ Judas is a Traitor (13:18, 22-30)

→ How (not) to betray Jesus

LIGHT

A grayscale photograph of a hand dipping a piece of bread into a bowl of soup. The background is dark and out of focus, emphasizing the hand and the bowl. The text is overlaid on the image.

→ Jesus is Still LORD (13:18-30)

→ God cannot be evil

→ Judas is responsible for his evil

→ Jesus loved Judas