

Reconciliation

2 Corinthians 5:21

Slides from Dirk Jongkind's sermon at the evening service,

Sunday 23rd June 2024

All this is from God, who reconciled us to himself through Christ and gave us the ministry of reconciliation:

That God was reconciling the world to himself in Christ, not counting people's sins against them.

2 Corinthians 5:19-20

All this is from God, who reconciled us to himself through Christ and gave us the ministry of reconciliation:

That God was reconciling the world to himself in Christ, not counting people's sins against them.

2 Corinthians 5:19-20

All this is from God, who reconciled us to himself through Christ and gave us the ministry of reconciliation:

That God was reconciling the world to himself in Christ, not counting people's sins against them.

2 Corinthians 5:19-20

[His purpose was] ... in one body to reconcile both of them to
God through the cross

Ephesians 2:16

[His purpose was] ... in one body to reconcile both of them to
God through the cross

Ephesians 2:16

... while we were God's enemies, we were reconciled to him
through the death of his Son ...

Romans 5:10

We are therefore Christ's ambassadors, as though God were making his appeal through us. We implore you on Christ's behalf: be reconciled to God.

God made him who had no sin to be sin for us, so that in him we might become righteousness of God.

2 Corinthians 5:20-21

God made him who had no sin to be sin for us,
so that in him we might become righteousness of God.

2 Corinthians 5:21

God made him who had no sin to be sin for us,
so that in him we might become righteousness of God.

2 Corinthians 5:21

God made him who had no sin to be sin for us,
so that in him we might become righteousness of God.

2 Corinthians 5:21

God made him who knew no sin to be sin for us,
so that in him we might become righteousness of God.

2 Corinthians 5:21

God made him who had no sin to be sin for us,
so that in him we might become righteousness of God.

2 Corinthians 5:21

For zeal for your house consumes me
and the insults of those who insult you fall on me.

Psalm 69:9

For zeal for your house consumes me

and the insults of those who insult you fall on me.

Psalm 69:9

His disciples remembered that it is written: 'Zeal for your house will consume me.' (...) After he was raised from the dead, his disciples recalled what he had said. Then they believed the Scripture and the words that Jesus had spoken.

John 2:17, 22

For zeal for your house consumes me

and the insults of those who insult you fall on me.

Psalm 69:9

For even Christ did not please himself but, as it is written: 'The insults of those who insult you have fallen on me.'

Romans 15:3

You, God, know my folly;
my guilt is not hidden from you.

Psalm 69:5

You, God, know my folly;
my guilt is not hidden from you.

Psalm 69:5

God made him who had no sin to be sin for us

Against you, you only, have I sinned
and done what is evil in your sight

So you are right in your verdict and justified when you judge

Psalm 51:3-4

Against you, you only, have I sinned
and done what is evil in your sight

So you are right in your verdict and justified when you judge

Psalm 51:3-4

He himself bore our sins in his body on the cross ...

1 Peter 2:24

God made him who had no sin to be sin for us,
so that in him we might become righteousness of God.

2 Corinthians 5:21

Lord my God, if I have done this and there is guilt on my hands –
if I have repaid my ally with evil
or without cause have robbed my foe –
then let my enemy pursue and overtake me;
let him trample my life to the ground
and make me sleep in the dust.

Psalm 7:3-5

Vindicate me, Lord, according to my righteousness,
according to my integrity, O most High.

Psalm 7:8

Vindicate me, Lord, according to my righteousness,
according to my integrity, O most High.

Psalm 7:8

God made him who had no sin to be sin for us,
so that in him we might become righteousness of God.

•

We implore you on Christ's behalf: be reconciled to God.
God made him who had no sin to be sin for us,
so that in him we might become righteousness of God.

2 Corinthians 5:20-21

[His purpose was] ... in one body to reconcile both of them to
God through the cross

Ephesians 2:16

[His purpose was] ... in one body to reconcile both of them to
God through the cross

Ephesians 2:16

And is not the bread that we break a participation in the body of Christ? Because there is one loaf, we, who are many, are one body, for we all share the one loaf.

1 Corinthians 10:16-17
