

plot twist

Luke 24:13-35

Why doesn't Jesus let these two disciples recognise him at first?

They need a paradigm shift.

They need a paradigm shift.

“Does not the Messiah have to suffer these things and then enter his glory?”

- Prophecies (e.g. Genesis 3, Psalm 22, Isaiah 53)
- Pictures (e.g. passover lamb)
- People (e.g. Jonah, David, Joseph)
- Plot lines (e.g. the exodus)
- Problems

The Scriptures make sense of Jesus, and he makes sense of the Scriptures.

Why doesn't Jesus let these two disciples recognise him at first?

Jesus wanted to show them that they didn't actually need to see him.

Jesus wanted to show them that they didn't actually need to see him.

Jesus wanted to show them that his death and resurrection fits.

Why does Luke tell us about this?

We have what we need to be confident that Jesus is alive.

We have what we need to be confident that Jesus is alive.

- An invitation to meet Jesus in the Bible.
- An assurance that faith in Jesus has deep roots.
- An encouragement when we're confused by suffering.
